

WHAT WE DO

Harper (below), is typical of many dogs who come to the Tweed Shire Council Pound. At 18 months old he has been left without a home and family. And the cats and kittens just keep coming!

All pound animals suitable for rehoming eventually find new homes. Pound staff and Friends of the Pound volunteers work tirelessly to ensure the stay at the pound for animals like Harper and the kittens is as pleasant as possible and that they go to caring responsible homes. If for some reason the animals do not sell from the pound, if they require veterinary work or are just not coping with institutional life, the Council allows Friends of the Pound to rescue them, provide necessary vet work and place them in foster homes. We then continue the search for the best possible home.

Whilst we volunteer at the pound and work closely with the pound keepers, we are a separate entity, having no external income source nor animal shelter of our own. We depend on the generosity of the public to fund our ever-increasing vet bills and day-to-day running costs, as well as the kindness of our foster carers to provide temporary homes for our rescue animals.
